Foreword

Hi there Graham Students,

Here it is - your yearbook - finally completed for you. We hope you like it.

The staff has worked long and hard to capture a few of the many memories of this wonderful school year. It hasn't always been easy, but it has been fun.

I hope you enjoy your annual as much as we have enjoyed working on it.

Now turn the page and relive those never-to-be-forgotten memories.

your editor,
Janis

We won't forget how excited we were and how we regreted to see the '59 Seniors leave.

Business Managers Jo Ann Ball and Thelma Woodson type ads while Nina Fuller sells Sandra Patrick a subscription for the annual.

Annual Staff

Staff members and annual sponsor, Mrs. Wetzel, check the kit for materials.

Journalism members joined the Annual Staff to solicit ads. They were given the day off to do the job.

Donnie Robinson, Rudy Austin, and Janis Van Dyke are hoping their dreams can come true. Mrs. Virginia Garwood, guidance director, does a good job helping students decide what they want to do. She is assisted by Mrs. Battle Cole.

Graham Atom

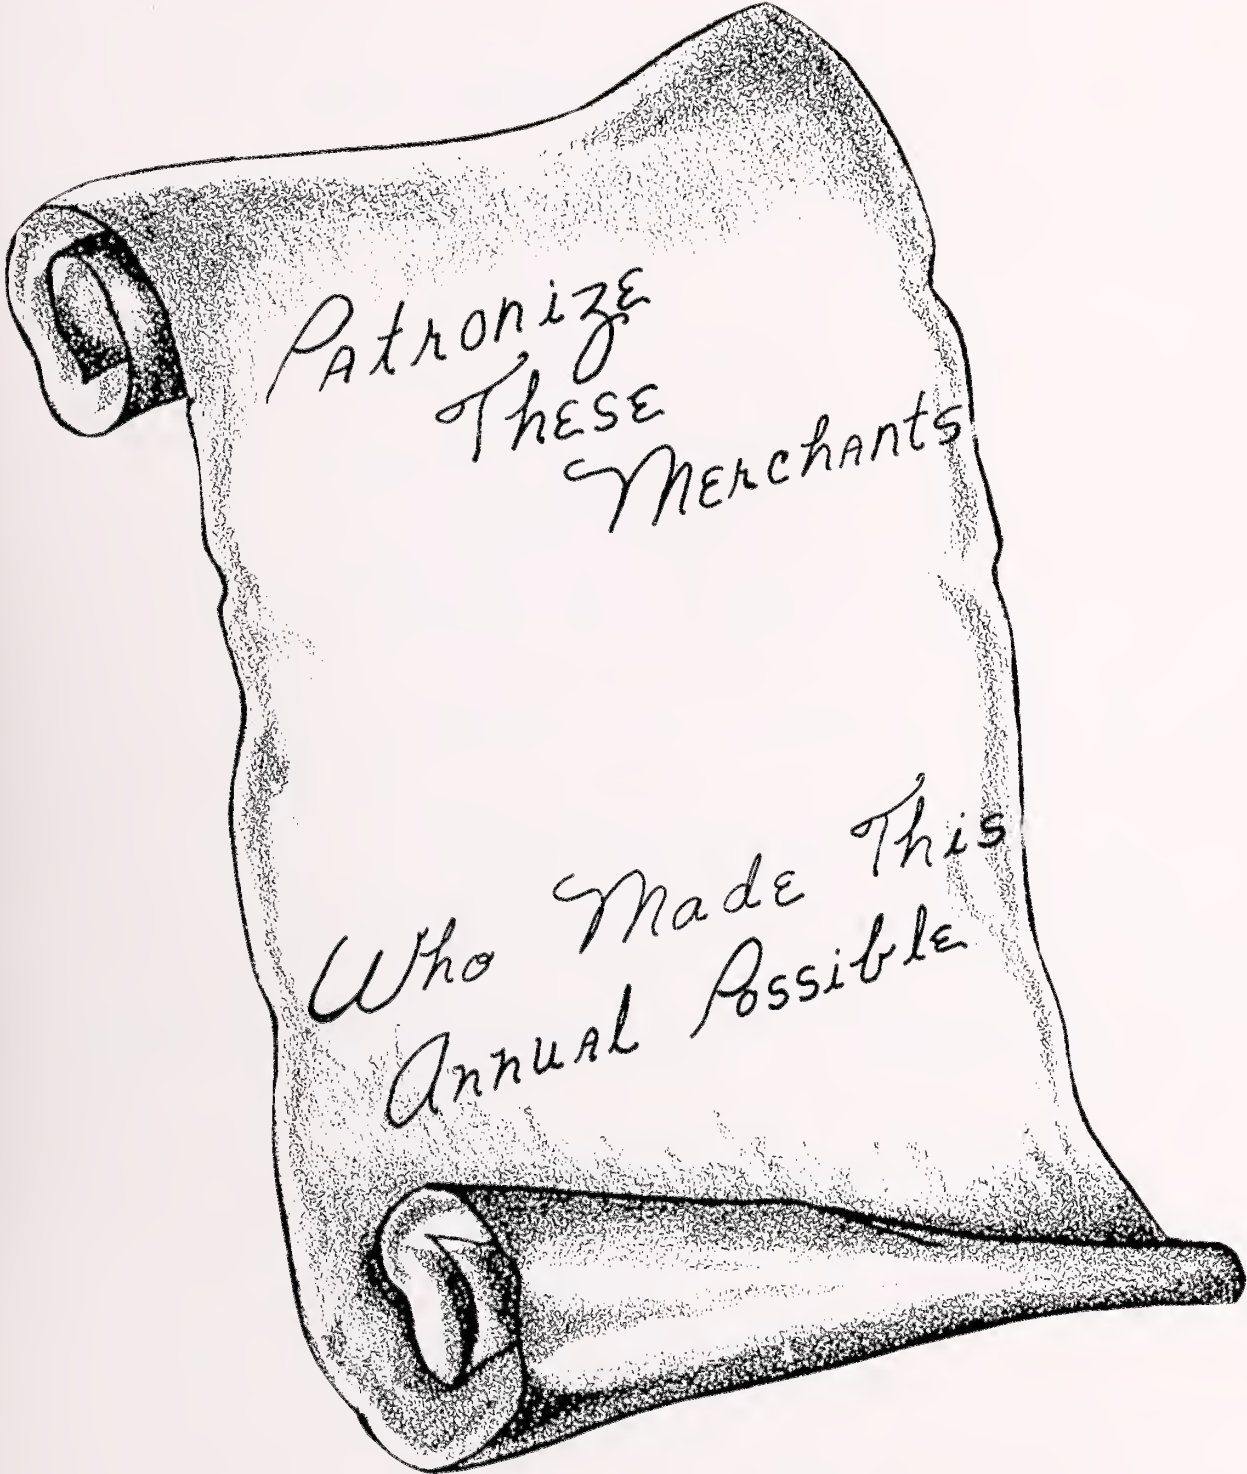

The GRAHAM ATOM is published once each month. Here members are shown typing copy. Getting the paper out on time is a big job.

The best part of all is selling the paper. Then we spend two weeks studying before starting the next issue.

The completed sheets are stapled together.

A hand-drawn scroll, possibly made of parchment, is shown unrolled. The scroll has a textured, stippled appearance. It is rolled at both ends, with the top-left end being more tightly coiled. The text is written in a cursive, handwritten style. The scroll is tilted slightly to the right.
